

Sonia E. Waters

@Pennington Presbyterian Church

Sunday February 11th

All Are Welcome!

10:15 am Worship Service Sermon

“Addiction as a Soul-Sickness”

3:00 pm Lecture and Q&A

“The Brain and Addiction”

- Understanding how people become addicted and the role of the brain in the progression from use to addiction
- How the community and people of faith can cultivate compassion and care

Sonia is the Assistant Professor of Pastoral Theology at Princeton Seminary. In addition to her work at the seminary, Sonia is currently a volunteer chaplain at the Carrier Clinic. Her current research interests include addictions with a book about to be published by Eerdmans Publishing.