

ESSENTIAL COMPONENTS TO FORMING A NEW WORSHIPPING COMMUNITY

Assessment,
Vera.White@pcusa.org

Apprenticeships and Residencies,
Sara.Hayden@pcusa.org

Coaching,
Shannon.Kiser@pcusa.org

Training, Sean.Chow@pcusa.org

Funding, Jon.Moore@pcusa.org
Tim.McCallister@pcusa.org

The process of discerning, starting, growing and multiplying new worshipping communities is non-linear.

Request services from the '1001' team at OneThousandOne.org

'Action steps' for presbyteries, churches and emerging leaders to form New Worshipping Communities

1001
WORSHIPPING COMMUNITIES
OneThousandOne.org

DISCERNING

EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITY OF BECOMING A NWC LEADER

Attend Discerning Missional Leadership Assessment

Gather a discernment team

Meet with a presbytery committee

Become an Apprentice

Attend

- 1001 intro event
- Neighborhood Listening Event
- 1001 National Conference
- Training event

Consult with coach

Consider funding options

STARTING

THE BEGINNING STAGES OF A NEW WORSHIPING COMMUNITY

Use Starting New Worshipping Communities resource

Gather core leadership team

Consult on funding strategy; cultivate initial donors

Apply for Seed and health insurance grants

Contract with coach

Attend Neighborhood Listening Event

Attend 1001 National Conference

Participate in a cohort

Develop congregational and mid-council partnerships

GROWING

MATURING AS A WORSHIPING COMMUNITY

Continue using Starting New Worshipping Communities

Implement funding strategy; broaden donor base

Attend 1001 National Conference

Contract with coach

Apply for Investment and Growth grants

Nurture partnerships with congregations and mid-councils

Identify, train, and deploy new leaders

Consider plans for becoming an organized congregation with your presbytery's help

MULTIPLYING

REPRODUCING NEW WORSHIPING COMMUNITIES

Form new leadership team using Starting New Worshipping Communities

Conduct Neighborhood Listening Event

Become a coach

Lead a cohort

Sponsor new leaders to attending Discerning Missional Leadership Assessment

Sponsor apprenticeship or residency

Sponsor training events

Meet with Presbytery committee

Invite donors to support a new community

Action steps marked with an icon are offered by the 1001 Team. See OneThousandOne.org. Items without icons can be completed with the help of your team, presbytery, or coach.